

Helsinki 2023

Remunerations distributed by Gramex will be paid to the estate until the estate is distributed. When dealing with Gramex the executor or administrator of the estate must present a power of attorney. If a beneficiary of the estate receives "Gramex-rights" as inheritance, he or she must provide proof of the transference of these rights to Gramex. After this the beneficiary can become a client and receive remunerations distributed by Gramex.

Documents and information needed by Gramex:

- inventory of the estate
- deed of estate distribution
- (- deed of partition)

Documents can be mailed to:
